

Class List

Time	Class Name	Class Description	SCA Name
9:30 AM	Brickwork Embroidery	Brickwork embroidery: a hands on class of an embroidery style from the 14th and 15th centuries in the Holy Roman Empire. Kits will be available for 10 people.	Petranella
10:30 AM	Roger Ascham Study	Archers know Roger Ascham for his archery textbook. Teachers know Roger Ascham for his treatise on instructing the young. Politicians should know Roger Ascham as one who served four monarchs of England. Who is this Scholemaster ? Come and discover.	Kudrun Pilegrim
11:30 PM	LUNCH /Elizabethan Costuming Open Discussion	Get together over lunch to talk about Elizabethan costuming. We can talk about how to get started, what resources to use, or anything else that comes up. Stop in anytime during the hour.	Gweniver Kenwyn of Roseveth
12:30 PM	John Dee and Elizabethan magic	Dr. John Dee was one of the most influential men in Elizabethan England. Advisor to the Queen, author of volumes on mathematics, astronomy, navigation and others, his reputation for practicing the "dark arts" was somewhat deserved. Outline of Elizabethan magic and divination: texts, theory, practice, and influence. Lots of pictures planned, and (hopefully) a fun take-away on Lorenzo Spirito's dice divination classic Libro de la Ventura (Book of Fortune).	Joe Peterson
1:30 PM	Elizabethan Embroidery	Embroidery during Elizabethan times. Techniques/styles, how it was used, what it was sewn on	Amytis de la Fontaine
2:30 PM	Needle tatting and Point Lace	Learn to needle tat. Late period form of lace making which requires two hands and the ability to count. This is a hands on class with supplies available. Leave with a partially completed project which you can finish at home. For books and supplies see the Handy Hands web site. No fee, some kits for participants will be available at cost ($4) or bring your own tatting needle and threads.	Boneddgwys Dwynwen
3:30 PM	Historic Combat		Toshikage